GETUIENIS-SONDAG 1 MAART 2026

Hierdie is die eerste Sondag van 2026 waar ons aandag spesifiek toegespits word op ons roeping om draers van lig te wees.

Dit waarmee ons in ons eie gemeenskap besig is, vra onder andere dat ons elke dag bewus moet wees van hierdie roeping. En ons pad kruis gedurig met dié van mense wat ander tale praat, van 'n ander kultuurgroep is, of wie se lewensomstandighede baie anders as ons eie is. Dit vra sensitiwiteit en geduld om verhoudings te bou wat kan lei tot geleenthede om te getuig.

Ons roeping om getuies te wees teenoor mense van ander kulture is deel van die eredienste van hierdie Sondag.

Daarby is dit die getuienisaksie se wens dat al ons lidmate, veral nuwelinge wat die afgelope jaar of meer by ons aangesluit het, inligting moet hê oor die sendelinge en aksies by wie ons gemeente betrokke is. Vir dié doel is boekmerke gedruk wat by die deure beskikbaar sal wees. Dit is nuttig om byderhand te hê as jy stiltetyd hou en vir ons sendelinge bid.

Meer besonderhede oor elke sendeling of aksie se dienswerk vir die Here is opgesom in 'n los blad wat saam met die Kerkklok by die deure beskikbaar is.

Neem asb. hiervan sodat almal ons sendelinge beter kan leer ken en op 'n gereelde basis vir hulle kan bid. Verder wil die getuienisaksie opreg vra dat individuele lidmate en kleingroepe dit asb. moet oorweeg om een of meer spesifieke sendelinge "aan te neem" en te ondersteun deur gebed, kontak en meelewing.

Skakel gerus vir Esther Pretorius (082 786 3100) of enige lid van die getuienisaksie vir meer inligting.

'N BEDRYWIGE BEDIENING – NIE NET LEESSTOF!

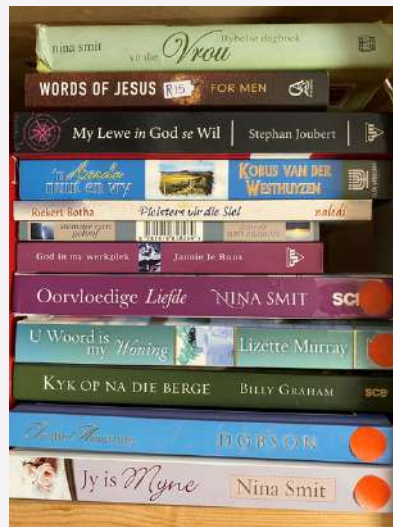

Lisel Krige

Hoewel talle gemeentelede bewus is van die Boekoase by die Hangklipkerk, is dit miskien nie algemeen bekend nie, dat dit 'n volwaardige biblioteek is met boeke van 'n verskeidenheid genres en kategorieë, soos fiksie, nie-fiksie, Christelike lektuur, biografieë en meer!

Boonop is dit 'n lewendige bediening wat behels dat Bybels en ander boeke wyd versprei word waar dit lig en vreugde kan bring, en dat fondsinsamelings deur die verkoop van boeke stewige bydraes vir verdienstelike sake oplewer.

Alta Jones, wat die Boekoase bedryf en aan die spits van verskeie uitreikprojekte staan wat deel daarvan uitmaak, sê sy sal dit verwelkom as belangstellendes en boekliefhebbers naderstaan en betrokke raak by die biblioteek en verwante projekte.

Vir meer inligting kan jy haar kontak (d.m.v. whatsapp of 'n oproep) by 083 270 5698

Kerse en verbeeldingsvlug rig Kernkerkraadsvergadering

Fanie Krige

Met kerslig, vers en verbeelding het ons nuwe predikant, dr Stephan Naudé, sy eerste Kernkerkraadsvergadering by Kogelberg ingelui. Hy het sy roepingsteks – Esegïel 47:1–12 – met die gemeenteleiers gedeel nadat hy drie kerse aangesteek en hulle met asemhalingstegnieke tot rus gebring het.

Die mans en vroue is genooi om hul oë toe te maak en die toneel wat die profeet beskryf te visualiseer: 'n waterstroom wat uit die tempel vloei en al hoe dieper word totdat dit uiteindelik 'n deel van die see vars maak – behalwe vir sekere kuile en moerasse wat vir soutontginning bestem is. Waar die stroom kom, sal alles lewe. Op die oewers van die stroom sal allerlei vrugtebome groei; hul blare sal nie verlep nie en hul vrugte sal nie opraak nie. Die vrugte sal daar wees om te eet en die blare om genesing te bring.

Die gesprek wat hierop gevolg het, was 'n goeie aanduiding van hoe ryk en diep die teks is. Dieselfde tema is deur die voorsitter, ds Heinrich Carstens, opgehaal toe hy sowat drie ure later die vergadering afgesluit het.

Die hantering van die 67 bladsye lange agenda, plus nog 'n paar stukke korrespondensie wat bygekom het, het soos die vloei van Esegïel se stroom verloop. Dit het onder meer die kerk se begroting vir 2026/27 ingesluit.

Die Kernkerkraad bestaan uit die predikante, die diensbestuurder, verteenwoordigers van die Kleinmond-wyksraad, Hangklip-wyksraad, Administrasie (Kommissie vir Kantoorsake en Kommunikasie), Finansiële Kommissie, Eiendomsbediening, Barmhartigheidsdiens, Personeelsake en die Visiekommissie. Laasgenoemde gaan nou ontbind en deur kommissies vir Gemeentebediening en Begeleiding vervang word.

Verslae van Ekobediening en die Projektekomitee is ook aan die Kernkerkraad voorgelê.

SKAKELING TUSSEN NG KOGELBERG- EN V GK-GEMEENTES!

Lisel Krige

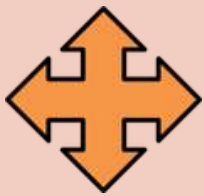

Vroeër vandeemaand het verteenwoordigers van die kerkrade van die plaaslike V GK-gemeente en ons eie gemeente hul gereelde byeenkoms gehad, waar 'n gesprek voortgesit is rakende die uitdaging van die hoë voorkoms van middel-afhanklikheid in ons gemeenskap.

Me. Cecile Horn, maatskaplike hulpwerker by die Fynbosdienssentrum, het die gesprek wat reeds by 'n vorige geleentheid ingelei is, voortgesit; en ds. Willie van der Merwe het die res van die interaksie gefasiliteer.

Daar was eenstemmigheid oor die noodsaaklikheid vir die Kerk om saam met ander gemeenskapstrukture koppe bymekaar te sit oor maniere waarop middel-afhanklikheid deur kundiges getakel en die hoof gebied kan word.

Dit was die heel laaste formele vergadering wat ds. Kirsten Small as predikant in ons gemeente bygewoon het, en ds. Anthony Cloete van die V GK het groot waardering uitgespreek vir haar rol terwyl sy hier in die bediening gestaan het. Sy sal baie gemis word, het hy gesê.

DAY 12 • MARCH 1

IRANIANS in GREECE

Growing up in Iran, Layla had many unanswered questions about faith and nothing to comfort her throughout the many difficult circumstances in her life. She married, had a daughter and moved to Iraq where her husband died. She lost her job and all her possessions and then suffered a series of heart attacks. In panic, she cried out, "God, help me! My daughter is all alone." Despite her lack of funds, she was taken to a hospital where she received heart surgery from a kind Christian surgeon. Her surgery was not only successful, but the doctor said, "God is healing your heart. God is working with this heart." Layla reminisced that "a strange warmth came over me, and I felt like I was born again. I believed and made a covenant with God to serve him for as long as I have breath."

Layla and her daughter travelled to Greece along the refugee highway where God told her clearly, "Layla, I have work for you, and you must seek out those who have lost their way, those who are homeless." God used her first to translate Al Massira, a film based course which leads seekers on a journey through the Old Testament prophets, culminating in an invitation to follow Jesus the Messiah.

Layla now serves at a refugee centre, where people arrive hungry and exhausted. She reaches out to them with God's love and offers prayer. In addition, she often invites them into her home where she cooks for them and leads them through the Al Massira course. Many of these have found a new home in Jesus.

please PRAY

- Pray that refugees facing hardship and despair would encounter Jesus the Messiah.
- Pray that more Farsi speaking Al Massira groups would form in Greece.
- Ask God to equip churches to embrace new believers from a Muslim background and see them grounded in the Word.

Consider how you could journey with Muslim friends or neighbours as they encounter the Messiah at www.almassira.org

BLUE NILE • SUDAN

Paulina grew up in Damazin, a city in Blue Nile, Sudan. When a pastor reached out to her Muslim family, Paulina was intrigued by the idea that she could become a new creation. When she was 18, she began to seek Jesus and her thoughts, heart, and behaviour all began to change. She saw God at work in her life and immediately began sharing with her family and community.

Paulina later moved to her tribe's hometown, just over the border in South Sudan. In 2013, this area became home to 130,000 refugees from Blue Nile's numerous tribes. Thousands more refugees arrived more recently from elsewhere in Sudan as civil war tore the country.

God told Paulina in a dream: "Unless you saturate this place with the Word of God, it will never change!" She began to gather women from different churches for prayer and outreach. She often prayed for patients in the local hospital. However, Paulina lacked resources to get to the refugee camps, so she prayed.

And God provided. Paulina recently got to know people who help her travel to the camps and connect with unreached tribes. They provide audio resources for her to share with these eager to know more.

Almost every day she visits women, prays for their needs, and tells them about Jesus. She feels happy as she sees God at work changing these communities.

For the word of God is alive and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart.
~ Hebrews 4:12

please PRAY

- Praise God that the Blue Nile tribes are becoming more open to hear about Jesus.
- Pray for God's kingdom to be established in each one of these tribes through more workers like Paulina.
- Cry out to God for His provision and a good harvest in the face of widespread hunger amongst the refugees.

DAY 14 • MARCH 3

the GILAKS of IRAN

The Gilaks are a people group numbering nearly 5 million whose homeland is Gilan on the southern and southwestern coast of the Caspian Sea. Whilst considering themselves Iranian and generally speaking Iran's national language, Farsi, they also have their own language, Gilaki, and their own culture.

Varesh is Gilaki. A talented musician, he was homeless, living under a bridge, and addicted to drugs when he encountered the love of Jesus. Miraculously freed from his addiction, he started using his musical skills to praise God. However, due to a serious speech impediment, he couldn't sing. During the 1980s Iran-Iraq war, Varesh noticed how a famous singer used songs to urge young men to go to the frontline. So, he prayed that God would raise up singers who would instead guide people into His loving arms. Not long after, his pastor told him that he would be one of those singers! As he prayed, received prayer and started singing, slowly his mouth and tongue began to change - God was healing him!

Varesh started composing poetry and worship songs in Farsi and Gilaki. He also started pastoring others. Sadly, because of this activity he was arrested and imprisoned, and upon release he and his family had to leave Iran and seek asylum elsewhere. But they have continued to serve the Lord and with the encouragement and support of other believers, Varesh is publishing his Gilaki worship songs for the first time and leading worship in the first ever online Gilaki church!

One of his songs about forgiveness, published as a moving video created by his daughter, is helping other Gilaks to forgive those who have hurt them.

Watch Varesh's video here: <https://youtu.be/xwK6LrWfJE>

please PRAY

- Ask God that through Varesh's worship songs, many Gilaks would come to faith in Jesus.
- Pray that believers would hear the Lord speaking through the songs and obey what He says.
- Intercede for a safe long-term country of asylum for Varesh and his family and for peace as they wait.

UIGHURS

Solha grew up in a traditional Muslim home in Central Asia but felt a closeness to God. She talked to Him, feeling like she knew Him. When the Soviet Union broke up and her country became independent, Muslim missionaries organised classes for girls to learn the Quran and Hadith. At first, Solha was excited, but then grew doubtful that the God she felt she knew was the same one she was learning about in her classes.

When her family became friends with a Christian family, Solha at first objected. Everyone knew Christians were immoral! But she was fascinated by how this family followed God. They had access to God anytime and anywhere, whether their bodies were clean or not. Jesus' teachings about blessing and not cursing and loving your enemies sounded more like the God she felt she had always known. It took nearly three years but Solha finally embraced new life in Christ.

Despite the mocking from her classmates, Solha knew that she wanted other Muslims to discover there was a loving God through Jesus Christ. She learned this would be a hard road when, during a time of sharing, she was arrested and held for a time in prison. But this prepared her for when God put the Uighurs on her heart and she decided to move to Northwest China.

Being from a similar culture meant that Solha could visit a family and minutes later be rolling out the lagman - a traditional noodle dish - with the wife. At other times, she would eat in a cafe and then find herself in the kitchen, sharing her faith with the cook and the pantry staff. Solha realised that her Muslim background gave her such fruitful inroads with her new Uighur friends.

please PRAY

- Ask God to deliver the Uighurs from the suffering they have experienced in many different countries.
- Pray for believers like Solha to reach out in love to Uighurs worldwide.
- Pray for wide distribution of Uighur Scriptures and other Christian materials.

DAY 15 • MARCH 4

DAY 16 • MARCH 5

the BANJAR of KALIMANTAN

The Banjar are one of Indonesia's largest but least reached people groups. Numbering around 5 million, they are centered in South Kalimantan and known for homes built on stilts over the swamp or river. Despite being 99.9% Muslim, God has done amazing miracles among them, resulting in many embracing Christ.

One day a local believer received a call. "Joy, please come. There's a suicidal lady on the dock's edge with a relative who also needs your help." Before leaving, Joy prayed with her foreign friends, with one sensing that God wanted the woman to know that He knows her name, which she understood to be 'Jewel'.

Joy found the suicidal lady on the dock, bound by fear that she'd either die or kill someone. Joy said, "God knows your name. The only one who can help you is Jesus. In Jesus' name, demon, leave!" This lady was instantly healed of her mental illness, but her name wasn't Jewel - it was Hope. Hope invited Joy to visit her relative's mute teenage son whom the neighbors considered crazy. Joy shared about Jesus, then prayed. God instantly healed his mental illness and restored his speech. His mother, 'Light', was overjoyed.

The chain continued. Light told Joy of another relative that had wanted to meet Joy but was ashamed because she was a prostitute. So Light, Hope and Joy went to this prostitute's house. No one knew her real name, not even her relatives, because everyone called her 'raw meat' or 'donut seller'. But she was shocked when Joy spoke out her real name: 'Jewel!' Joy shared the story of Mary Magdalene, and how Jesus loved her in such a holy way. In tears, Jewel was eager to leave prostitution and follow Him.

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.

~ 2 Corinthians 5:17

please PRAY

- Ask God for more encounters with Jesus' miracles and love.
- Pray that believers would witness boldly to their friends and neighbours.
- Pray for thriving spiritual communities and for new believers to grow in spiritual gifts.

Veels Geluk...

Jou geboorte... en tweede geboorte!

Johannes 3:1-21
GESPREKSBLAD VIR GROEPE

GROEPGESPREKKE | 2-7 MAART 2026

1. Gesels bietjie saam...

- Gee vir elke groeplid kans om te vertel waar hulle gebore is.
- En watter snaakse storie oor jou geboorte het jy dalk gehoor?

2. Ons storie nou...

- Wat is vir jou die moeilikste om te glo: dat God lief kan wees vir party mense of dat God lief is vir jou? Hoekom sê jy so?
- As jy weet dat daar mense is wat lief is vir jou, hoe verander dit hoe jy voel en hoe jy optree?
- Dink jy dat God lief is vir jou? Hoekom dink jy is God lief vir jou? Dink jy God het jou eerste gekies óf moet jy eers vir God kies? Hoe verander dit alles?

3. God se storie...

Lees Johannes 3:1-21 rustig saam deur (dalk uit 'n ander vertaling soos Die Boodskap) en gesels dan oor die volgende temas en vrae:

- Hoekom dink jy lees ons hierdie teks juis nou in Lydenstyd?
- Hoekom dink julle het Nikodemus in die nag na Jesus toe gegaan? Dink julle dat daar vandag nog mense is wat nie wil hê dat ander mense moet weet dat hulle antwoorde by Jesus soek nie?
- Bespreek die stelling: “Daar is 'n verskil tussen bekering en wedergeboorte. Wedergeboorte is iets wat God doen. Jy het nie 'n sê daarin nie – Hy maak jou sy kind. Bekering is iets wat ons moet doen. Soos dit wat die Verlore Seun by die varke gedoen het. Hy het opgestaan en besluit om terug te gaan na sy Vaderhuis – hy was klaar 'n kind – net 'n kind wat afgedwaal het...”
- Bespreek: “Wedergeboorte is iets wat God een keer doen. Bekering is iets wat ek elke dag, weer en weer, moet doen.”
- Gesels 'n bietjie oor hoe 'lig' en 'duisternis' teenoor mekaar gestel word in hierdie gedeelte.

4. Hoe die Bybel ons storie verander...

- Probeer jy om op jou eie ontslae te raak van die 'duisternis' in jou lewe, óf maak jy op God se krag staat om jou te verander?
- Wat is die belangrikste boodskap in hierdie gedeelte wat jy dink die wêreld moet hoor?
- As jy een vraag kon stel aan Jesus, wat sou jy vir Hom vra?
- Ons almal ken sekerlik Johannes 3:16 uit jou kop. Doen nou moeite om ook vers 17 saam met 16 uit jou kop te leer, want dit is 'n eenheid.

5. Sluit die byeenkoms af deur geleentheid vir stil of hardop gebede.

Ons lees dié week uit die Woord...

Lees gerus die volgende teksgedeeltes uit die Woord en oordink dit hierdie week onder leiding van die Heilige Gees:

- Maandag 2 Maart - Johannes 3:1-17
- Dinsdag 3 Maart - Psalm 95
- Woensdag 4 Maart - Eksodus 17:1-7
- Donderdag 5 Maart - Romeine 5:1-11
- Vrydag 6 Maart - Johannes 4:5-42
- Saterdag 7 Maart - Johannes 4:5-42
